150 BLUES FANS HAVE ALREADY BOOKED WITH 150 DAYS TO GO ...

International Blues for International Fans!

The 2nd P&O International Blues Revue is already proving more ambitious (and more popular) than the mold-breaking 2015 edition.

After a home-grown line-up last time we step up a level to welcome aboard several international artists from the USA and from Mainland Europe to add to 'the best of British'.

Multiple BMA nominee Larry Garner (USA) joins long-time compadre Norman Beaker and his band. Alabama-based singer- songwriter Lisa Mills
(USA) joins the team to show why her vocals are compared to Otis Redding Bonnie Raitt and Janis Joplin. Lisa plays on the Hull- Rotterdam leg of the cruise before heading to festivals in Germany.

Making the return journey on Saturday will be Little Steve and the Big Beat (NL). This Dutch outfit wowed the 2015 cruisers at the Waterhole Bar in Amsterdam and thoroughly deserve their spot on 'the boat'

In fact, there's even a chance to catch some of these international artists playing again on the Sunday night ferry heading out of Hull – but more of that later!

Doing your homework!

If you want to be up-to-date with our artist's latest tracks (so you can sing along in November!) make a note of these recent releases below

Ian Siegal is currently touring with Jimbo Mathus (USA) ...his latest release is 'Wayward Sons', a live CD from the duo

www.iansiegal.com

Lisa Mills doesn't have a new album out this year but this rather fetching 2016 calendar is available on her website www.lisamills.com

A new album from Kyla Brox 'Throw Away Your Blues' has been getting rave reviews not least from Paul Jones' on his BBC Radio 2

Show. Buy it at www.kylabrox.com (Vinyl copies may still be available)

Loved the 2015 cruise ... Can't wait for the next one – everybody's talking about it!

As befits their authentic vintage '50s R'n'B stage-show the latest release from the Revolutionaires is a 45 rpm single – 'Atomic'
