The 100% Unofficial Fanzine
of P&O Bluescruises

“A blast from start to finish!”

That was the verdict of one of our ‘first-time-cruisers’ at the end of our 3rd P&O International Blues Revue on Sunday. And indeed, the musicians on-board – and the 500+ blues fans from all-over the UK made it a memorable, unique event.

“My mate said last night was the best night's music he had ever seen and I have to agree-brilliant!”

Let's not forget a wonderful afternoon at The Waterhole in Amsterdam, too. Kai Strauss' Electric Blues All Star Band were superb and, our old favourite Little Steve jumping-up to guest was ‘the cherry on the cake’!

Not that that was the only musical collaboration of course – we had a ‘once-in-a-lifetime’ blues super-group of Tom Attah, Johnny Hewitt and Jon Amor opening the show and amazing high-jinks with the whole cast on stage for Wang Dang Doodle to close it.

Too much happened to describe here but there are lots more photos from John Ashton and videos from Tom W and Fiona R on www.bluescruiseuk.com and the Blues@Sea Facebook group. Have a look and please post more if you have them!

November 2017

As Muddy Waters sang –
“The Blues had a baby and they called it Rock & Roll!”

And indeed many early Rock & Roll artists – Chuck Berry, Fats Domino, Joe Turner and Bo Diddley were blues singers, too.

Which is why our next Blues@Sea event (16th- 18th February 2018) is dedicated to the best of Rock & Roll.

Bruges is the destination this time and BOOKING IS OPEN NOW. Ring 0800 130 0030 (FREE) or look for details on www.bluescruiseuk.com (It's a smaller ferry so don't delay) It features -
