Passport* to Party time!

Even before you show your passport and climb the gangplank the party will be underway. Blues one-man-band Andy Twyman (and his rubber chicken kazoo) will perform in the check-in-area from 3.30 – 5.30. You can find out about Andy in the latest edition of Blues Matters Magazine.

*You'll be allowed to board between 4.00 and 7.00 …Don't be late and DON'T FORGET YOUR PASSPORT!

It's Free!

The Saturday afternoon gig by Kai Strauss and the Electric Blues All Stars is free to cruisers but only if you're wearing your wristband! Collect a wristband while checking-in. There are two colours indicating the two shows at 1.00 and at 2.30. You'll be able to choose ('while stocks last' - if one show becomes full you'll be allocated the other!) Directions to the venue are attached

On the buses (1)

At the request of 'Blues Cruisers' coaches back to the Ferry will commence at 4.00. There will be later ones too. They'll pick you up where they drop you outside Hotel Barbizon. Don't miss the coach –a taxi back to the ferry costs over 100 Euros!

On the buses (2)

Those of you who just can't get enough good music will be pleased to hear that each coach carries a specially produced blues compilation CD featuring artists such as Taj Mahal, Ry Cooder, Rory Gallagher, Elmore James, Albert Collins, BB King, Etta James and former 'cruisers' like Marcus Bonfanti, Larry Garner and Little Steve and the Big Beat. Make sure the driver remembers to put it on!

On the buses (3)

Remember that, if Amsterdam doesn't entice you, there are also buses provided to Rotterdam.

Respect!

There are over 500 music fans onboard. They have paid good money to listen to the music. Please don't be one of a tiny minority who spoils it for them by inconsiderate chatter.
